Our Story

The Lexington Tennis Charity Inc. is an established 501c3 started by a group of friends that wanted to give back to their local community. In 1995, they helped create a professional tennis tournament hosted on the hard courts of the Hilary Boone Tennis complex at The University of Kentucky. This tournament has been going strong for 30 years and has gotten bigger and better every year. In honor of this anniversary, we are rebranding and the tournament now will be known worldwide as the LEXINGTON OPEN.

Our tournament is unique because we are part of the ATP Challenger Tour and the WTT Tennis Tour. It attracts emerging talented men and women along with established players vying for ranking points and prize money. With its competitive atmosphere and enthusiastic local support, the Lexington Open is a key fixture in the tennis calendar, contributing to the growth and development of the sport.

Several participants have gone on to become top players in the world. Jannik Sinner (2019 Champion) is currently ranked No. 1 in the world. Other players include Tommy Paul who is currently ranked No. 11 in the world and Frances Tiafoe, currently No. 17 in the world. Some of the impressive women's players include Madison Keys, who is currently ranked No. 7 in the world and former No. 1 player Jessica Pegula, who is currently ranked No. 6. Both Keys and Sinner are the current 2025 Australian Open Singles Champions. There have been several other exciting up-and-coming players also. Joao Fonseca (2024 Champion pictured above) won his first ATP challenger tournament here in 2024 and went on to win the NEXT GEN title and an ATP 250 this year. Lerner Tien, also a 2024 participant, has skyrocketed to No.68 with multiple top 5 wins since August.

Mini Pro-Am with KCH patients and tournament participants

Lexington Challenger Tennis Charity, a 501c3 charitable organization, hosts the Lexington Open tennis tournament and associated events to support Kentucky Children's Hospital and the University of Kentucky's men's and women's tennis teams. In 2024, LCTC was proud to donate over $50,000 in direct funds and value of goods and services to each of our partners.

Kentucky Children's Hospital serves as the sub-specialty regional referral and pediatric care center for Central and Eastern Kentucky. The hospital has more than 70 pediatric specialists and 300 pediatric nurses working in 24 areas, as well as physical, occupational, speech and respiratory therapists, dietitians, licensed clinical social workers, genetic counselors, child life specialists and pharmacists -- all of whom are dedicated to caring for children. We are proud to host events including a mini Pro-Am with tournament participants and KCH patients (pictured above), a breakfast for KCH's Circle of Blue organization and a donor appreciation event during the tournament.

University of Kentucky Men's & Women's Tennis Teams

We are proud to support the University of Kentucky's men's and women's tennis teams led by Cedric Kauffmann (men's) and Shelley Jaudon (women's). The University of Kentucky's men's team is currently ranked No. 8 in the nation and the women's team continues to move up in the rankings. The Lexington Challenger Tennis Charity's "Big Blue Night," an annual Pro-Am and fundraiser, will help both tennis programs grow and succeed. The tournament will also continue to provide dedicated wild card entries to current and former UK tennis team members, allowing fans to support the "Big Blue" men's and women's players.
